weekly
ref E

The over-registration of AID and USIA, and the under-registration by State, will cause an imbalance in the representation on the student country teams. State, in consecutive Sessions, has enrolled only one-half of its quota of students. One ambassador (Newsome, Libya) and one general officer (Maj. Gen. Evans, JUSMMAT Turkey) are enrolled. There are no CIA Station Chiefs in this Session.

2. During this period, I made these presentations:

25X1A

a. 19 July - Introduction [REDACTED] students in a Headquarters Training Course.

b. 19 July - Role and Missions of CIA in Counterinsurgency, to the FSI Intermediate Course on Counterinsurgency.

c. 21 July - Role and Missions of CIA in Counterinsurgency, to the Senior Officer Orientation Course, 1-66, at the Special Warfare School, Ft. Bragg, North Carolina.

3. On 20-21 July, [REDACTED] and I escorted Ambassador Randolph Kidder, Coordinator of the National Interdepartmental Seminar, to [REDACTED] where he was briefed by the Chief of Station and others on the training conducted there relative to counterinsurgency. The briefing was given to the Ambassador by reason of his membership on the Sub-committee on Training, Special Group (CI) which is responsible for reviewing training in counterinsurgency conducted by the member agencies.
